

Nevada ECAC Subgroup Action Plan • Family & Community

Subcommittee Co-Chairs: Angela Triche & Dolores Hauck

Subcommittee Members:

Goal: Ensure families have the support they want and need to nurture their children’s early learning and development.

Objective 1

Expand opportunities for families to gain knowledge on and support their children’s development.

Benchmark: As a result of implementing the strategies and actions for this objective, what is the intermediate result you expect to see in 1-3 years?

S1	Research Born Learning (www.bornlearning.com), Daily Vroom (www.joinvroom.org), and other available resources and adopt those with evidence-based practices, materials, and information to share with parents.

S2	Recruit partners throughout the state to promote these resources and provide them with training to do so effectively. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Focus on organizations that interact with families regularly, such as child care providers, schools, libraries, family-serving non-profits, and health providers. Position libraries as hubs for engaging community participation and hosting programming. Engage local municipalities to offer Born Learning Trails. Use train-the-trainer approach to ensure effective delivery.
