Teaching/Education Experience

She has been an educator for over 15 years. Dr. Collier has taught a variety of grades ranging from teaching first grade in Honduras, Central America to teaching creative writing to high school students in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Prior to NSC, she taught literacy instruction, multicultural education, family literacy and bilingual education at California State University, Northridge for 12 years.

Youngae (Young) Choi, Ph.D.

I am an Assistant Professor in Early Childhood Education at Nevada State College. I have worked with culturally and linguistically diverse children and families in the university-based lab school and Head Start classrooms. My research interests include young children's identity and agency, second language learning, cultural diversity, and early STEM learning.
