Why should I become a Nevada ECAC member?

- Network and collaborate with early childhood systems stakeholders in our community
- Participate in early childcare initiatives and legislation that impacts our field and family
- Volunteer to make a difference in the lives of Nevada's future heroes!

Testimonials from current members:

"I joined ECAC to make a difference in my child's life!"

"I joined ECAC to make a difference in the Nevada early childhood system!"

"I joined ECAC to give back to the children of Nevada!"

Nevada Assembly Bill 114 has created a need for additional ECAC representatives including:

- One member who is a representative of the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services whose duties include responsibility for maternal, child and adolescent health;
- One member who is a representative of the Program for Child Care and Development in the Division of Welfare and Supportive Services of the Department;
- One member who is a representative of a public school who works with pupils in kindergarten through grade 3;
- One member who is a representative of a tribal organization;
- At least one member who is a parent or guardian of a child less than 8 years
